

Boy Scouts of America

The Evening World conducts a column of general and local interest to Boy Scouts each Saturday. Bronx and Manhattan items should be sent to headquarters, while Scout leaders of Westchester, New Jersey and Staten Island are invited to mail their notes to the Boy Scout Editor, The Evening World, No. 63 Park Row, New York City.

BIG SECOND DIVISION SHOW TO-NIGHT.

The Second Division Concert and Moving Picture Show will be held this evening in the auditorium of Public School No. 62, Hester and Essex Streets. Great preparations have been made for this much-heralded event.

The chief speaker will be Judge Edgar J. Lauer, Deputy Commissioner of the Second Division. Miss Marie Schneider, the pianist, will play a prelude from Rachmaninoff and selections from Rigoletto. Verdi and Liszt. The Hebrew Orphan Asylum Band will also be prominent on the musical program.

There will be two Scout pictures: "The Knights of the Round Table," and "The Boy Scout Jamboree."

WHERE SCOUTS ARE SCOUTS.

Out in the hills of Washington, the cattle rustlers have been raiding the cattle. Finally a counter-raid was planned by deputy sheriffs, and a Merit Badge Scout of Zillah led men to the lair of the stock rustlers.

SIXTH DIVISION HIKERS.

The monthly hike of the Sixth Division of Manhattan Scouts brought out about 60 boys and officials last Sunday. All went to Fort Richmond, S. I. On arrival there, tests were given to some of the boys in out-of-door subjects; the prizes to the winners will be distributed on Dec. 10, when the next hike will be held. Scoutmasters of the Division will be notified of the details.

BOY SCOUTS HELP IN BIG FOOT-BALL GAME.

When 70,000 people were present at the recent dedication of the Ohio State Stadium, comprising the greatest crowd at any athletic event west of the Alleghenies, 700 Boy Scouts served as ushers. Congratulations and a note of appreciation for the excellent services rendered have been forwarded to New York headquarters by athletic officials of the university.

FIFTH DIVISION SEES MOVIES.

The movie show held for the Scouts of the Fifth Division last Monday was a great success, and over 350 Scouts attended, as well as a number of Scoutmasters and officials. All present declared that the party was the best ever. The next show will be announced soon, and all Scouts of the Fifth are urged by their Scout Executive to watch for it.

DIVISION RALLY TO-NIGHT.

The regular monthly Division rally will be held by the Fifth Manhattan Division to-night at the Wadleigh High School Auditorium, 115th Street, near Seventh Avenue. All Scouts are urged to be on hand. The initiation ceremony for Tenderfoot Scouts will take place.

A TRUE THANKSGIVING TURN.

About 400 Scout leaders of Milwaukee will forget all about turkey at noon, on Thanksgiving Day and will go to Camp Journal, the week-end camp of Milwaukee Scouts, and there will erect a new cabin. The building will accommodate 60 Scouts and will be used for overnight hikes.

BIG JAMBOREE PLANNED.

Troop No. 541 will hold a big jamboree at the Institutional Synagogue Auditorium at 8 o'clock on the evening of December 6. All Scouts will be welcome, and are asked to cooperate to make the affair the success which it should be. All officials are urged to be on hand, and to keep the party in mind as one which can be successfully run off by other troops.

PILOTLESS AIRPLANE PASSES TWO-DAY TEST

Responded Well to Control by Hertzian Waves From Ground.

PARIS Nov. 25 (Associated Press).—A system of pilotless airplane control has passed a two-day test satisfactorily, according to experts who supervised the trials with a 300 horsepower passenger-carrying Government airplane that flew over Etampes Aviation Field on Wednesday and Thursday for several hours. The plane, going aloft with no one aboard, responded to control by Hertzian waves from the ground, performed all the customary evolutions, and then landed safely.

During the tests the machine was frequently lost from sight in haze and clouds, but it was always under control. The system was developed by the experts Demarecy, Bouche and Percheron.

BOOKKEEPER VIOLENT; REMOVED TO HOSPITAL

Fellow Employees Say They Restrained Him From Window Leap.

Arthur Holbert, forty-two, No. 259 Washington Avenue, Brooklyn, a bookkeeper for the Interstate Paper Box Company at No. 236 South Second Street, Williamsburg, became violent this morning and was taken to the Kings County Hospital for observation.

Other employees said Holbert was apparently trying to jump from a third story window when they interfered with him. Two policemen who were called in had difficulty in handling him and when an ambulance came he was put in a strait jacket before being taken to the hospital.

HOUSEWIVES' GUIDE Of Market Prices

Wholesale prices of turkeys prevailing for the past two months would seem to indicate that the housewife will have to pay a good figure for her Thanksgiving bird, despite rumors to the contrary. Fancy Maryland turkeys wholesale to-day at 60 and 65 cents per pound, Virginia, 60 to 65 cents, and State, 60 cents; Western, lead, are 55 to 57 cents; Western, dry packed, 55 to 57 cents; Texas, dry packed, 55 to 57 cents. This is the class of bird desired by the better trade and retails between 60 and 70 cents per pound.

Frozen, or storage turkeys are wholesaling at 50 to 55 cents for No. 1 young toms from the West; 47 to 52 cents for young hens; 50 to 45 cents for poor grade; Western and Southern old hens and toms sell from 40 to 45 cents per pound. There is a good demand for the frozen turkey owing to the shortage of fresh killed; the price now is from 55 to 60 cents per pound, according to condition and grade.

The first car of dressed turkeys arrived Monday and since then a few more shipments have come, but receipts are not yet large enough to supply the usual pre-holiday demand. Active buying will not begin until Monday and upon that day the price will be fixed at a figure which will allow a reasonable profit for the operators. About 5,000 boxes of 3 to 5 turkeys each came from South America and a few packages from Europe this week and sold well in view of the shortage of domestic fresh with sales from 40 to 55 cents, the Produce Price Current reports.

"The toning up of the weather may have some effect upon the quantity of birds dressed and shipped to the markets," a representative of the State Department of Farms and Markets said in discussing the possibility of a turkey priced under 65 cents per pound, "but the trend of the market now is for a high priced turkey. Instead of turkey, the housewife might buy a goose, two roasted chickens, two small ducks or a fine roast, and plan to have turkey at Christmas when prices are likely to be lower. With a large demand for turkeys, however, the cost is apt to be high, even though wholesale receipts exceed expectations. Word from the producing sections is that birds are not in fit condition to ship and growers are holding their birds back for later in the season."

Cider is wholesaling at 30 cents per gallon, a shipment having come Thursday from Western New York; retail quotations were not available, but dealers will have a supply the first of the week for sale. Mince-meat, prepared for Thanksgiving pies, is priced at 25 cents per pound in the Jefferson Market, and with the addition of raisins and seasoning makes fine pie. Chestnuts for stuffing the goose or turkey retail at 15 cents per pound; almonds, paper shelled, are 38 to 45 cents per pound; walnuts, 38 to 40 cents; Brazil nuts, 17 to 25 cents; hazel nuts, 25 cents, and mixed nuts, 40 cents.

Cranberries are selling generally at 18 cents per pound, but one chain store has them priced at 15 cents. Canned cranberry sauce put up in tin of one pound and five ounces is 25 cents in a chain store. The best eating grapes are 15 cents per pound, or two pounds for 25 cents; grapefruit, three for 25 cents; oranges, 25 to 40 cents per dozen.

Sunday's dinner need not cost the housewife more than the figure set aside for the daily dinner if she will shop around and take advantage of the many bargains and sales held in her neighborhood.

Roast shoulder of lamb (30 cents per pound), or Kidneys and brown gravy (one and one-half pounds kidneys at 22 cents per pound serves four), or Rolled roast of beef (35 cents per pound, three pounds serves six), or Browned Irish potatoes (five pounds for 9 cents), or Creamed carrots and peas (carrots, 5 cents; peas, 15 cents per can), or Banana salad (bananas, three for 10 cents), or Apple pie and cheese (apples five for 25 cents; cheese, 29 cents per pound).

OFFICIALS DENY KLAN INITIATION IN U. S. CAPITOL.

Men in Charge of Building Say Report Is Too Fantastic for Belief. (Special Despatch From a Staff Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—Officials in charge of the United States Capitol say the published report of the use of that building for initiation ceremonies of the Ku Klux Klan is the result of a Washington newspaper which has been conducting an anti-Klan campaign being imposed on by a practical joker.

They say it is too fantastic for belief, in view of the way in which the Capitol building is guarded at night and the manner in which all who pass the guards are scrutinized and their right in the building established. Elliott Woods, architect of the building and who has control over it; Joseph Rogers, sergeant-at-arms, and Capt. Alfred Montefredy, in charge of the police force, all of whom investigated the report, say it is beyond the range of probabilities, and the report of its taking place, which was telephoned to a Washington newspaper, was a hoax.

Congress was not in session Nov. 14 when the initiation ceremonies are alleged to have been held, so that there were few Congressmen or persons connected with their offices around the building on that date. Capt. Montefredy of the Capitol police force said it would have been impossible for any number of strangers to have passed the guards without detection.

One report in Washington to-day was that there had been initiation in the office of a member of Congress, but this could not be confirmed.

JURY CONVICTS DAMATO OF MANSLAUGHTER

Verdict in Second Degree Reached in Three Hours.

John Damato, twenty-eight, of No. 645 Atlantic Avenue, Brooklyn, was convicted last night by a jury in the Kings County Court of manslaughter in the second degree. Damato had been on trial four days on an indictment charging him with having shot and killed William Ryan of No. 1072 Rogers Avenue, Brooklyn, on Aug. 8 last, on Court Street, near State Street, Brooklyn. The jury was out less than three hours.

It was charged by the State that Damato deliberately drove his automobile to the wrong side of Court Street so that he could get a close range on Ryan and his brother, John, who were walking along the sidewalk. A few minutes before the State contended, Ryan had beaten Damato because the latter just missed running down Ryan and his brother as they were crossing the street.

Damato's defense was that he had been quarrelling with his wife in the automobile, because she had accused him of visiting a woman in a house on State Street, where he claims to have delivered some liquor. "I took out my revolver to frighten her only. She grappled with me and in the struggle the weapon was discharged," said Damato. He was remanded for sentence Dec. 4.

Thanksgiving and Christmas Sale of Used Upright and Grand and Player Pianos

Instruments purchased Monday are sure to be delivered for Thanksgiving

Many of Them Taken in Exchange for the Ampico

The king of all pianos, the re-enacting Ampico that re-enacts music just as it is played by the great artists, brings into our possession a used piano every time one is sold. Consequently, we find in our warerooms an unusual quantity of instruments taken in exchange, which must now be disposed of. So we make a great sale of them—in time for Thanksgiving and Christmas—and mark the prices so low that they should go immediately into homes that have not yet known the solace of music.

Pay on your own terms, within reason

All instruments have been carefully gone over and placed in first-class condition.
